NEW BUILDINGS

Plans Completed by Donn & Fleming—Work Starts Soon.

COST WILL BE $20,000

Italian Renaissance to Be General Architectural Scheme for Proposed Structures,

Work will be begun in a few days on we new buildings to be erected at 911 and 915 G street northwest. Plans and pecifications have been completed by Donn and Fleming. There will be no delay in beginning destruction of build-ings on the site.

Italian renaissance will be the general architectural scheme of the new struc-tures and tapestry brick is to be used. The buildings will be two stories, the lower floor divided into stores and the upper into six office rooms. Large show windows will be a distinctive feature.

The stores will front forty feet and run to a depth of 182. It is estimated the cost will be $20,000. The buildings will be ersected as an investment by the Donn estate owners. Completion of the work is expected within three and a half

It is stated arrangements have been made for leasing one of the stores

UNION'S ACTION CALLED "SUFFRAGE SUICIDE"

Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of "National," Decries Policy of Opposition Organization.

"Suffrage suicide," was the comment exterday of Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of vesterday of Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of the national suffrage organization, on the published statement of Mrs. Rheta Childe Derr. editor of the organ of the Congressional Union. Mr. Dorr announced the intention of the organization she represents to defeat Senators Thomas, of Colorado: Chamberiain, of Oregon and Smith, of Arizona, who are candidates for re-election this fall, because the Democratic caucus of the House would not provide a woman suf-House would not provide a woman suf-

Flows would not provide a woman suffrage committee.
This shows the fallacy." said Mrs.
Funk, "of the policy which the faction has been pursuing. Senator Thomas is chairman of the committee on woman suffrage and one of our closest friends and supporters. Senator Mark Smith was one of the first to announce his intention of supporting the woman suffrage amendment, and is carnestly for our cause. Senator Chamberlain has long cause. Senator Chamberlain has been an urgent woman suffragist.

LESSONS FOR CITIZENS ON FIRE ALARM BOX

Mistake of Small Boy to Result in Course of Instruction for "Body Politic."

A recent fire at Congress Heights near the Whaler subdivision caused an invesorrell E Biodle 510 to REYNOLDS, Deta A to Menita W tigation by citizens. It was claimed it was fully twenty minutes after the alarm was turned in when the department reached the scene. Investigation proved that a small boy's ignorance of the mys-teries of the fire alarm box, was the cause of the delay. The citizens who registered E complaint, feel that they were hasty in their action, and a public meeting will be called soon to give instruction in the use of the fire alarm box.

On Wednesday evening in the parish hall of Emmanuel Episcopal Church in V street a dramatic entertainment will be given by members of the parish, under the direction of the Woman's Guild. The proceeds will be used to further the work of the guild. The Minnesota Avenue Improvement Association will meet tonight. The an-nual election of officers will be held.
